NOTE:

With regard to the salary of Mrs. Sumathi S, Primary Teacher, she was on paid medical leave from 06-07-2026 to 24-07-2026 with the Correspondent's approval.

After the medical leave, her leave was extended from 25-07-2026 to 09-08-2026 as LOP, excluding Saturdays and Sundays as per HR advice.

Accordingly, 7 days' LOP was deducted from the July salary. However, while preparing the August salary 10 days' LOP was given wrongly by us.
Actually, only 5 days' LOP for July and 5 days' LOP for August (total 10 days) should have been deducted. Therefore, 17 days' LOP (7 days in July + 10 days in August) which was deducted instead of 10 days, resulting in an excess deduction of 7 days' salary.
We kindly request you to recredit the excess 7 days' salary along with the September month salary.
Sorry for the inconvenience caused in this regard.
